EVENT OVERVIEW

6-week Making A Mark Course with Christine Allison at Cross Keys House.

QUOTES

“Being creative, talking and chatting whilst working on our journals was a great escape from our Cancer journeys and helped put things into perspective. Christine was such a lovely Artist and teacher.

“Horses for courses” for the right person the course was excellent and fulfilled their need.”

“As well as a brilliant creative activity, the interaction and mutual support amongst the clients was fantastic. Such benefits to wellbeing!”

TESTIMONIALS

ALCS is the most amazing place. It is a Haven for people who are going through the most difficult times. I don't know what I would have done without it. It was the light in the darkness. Thank you for being there.

THANKS TO

Christine Allison

The poster features the title 'Making A Mark with Christine Allison' in large, bold letters. Below the title, the dates '17th January, 24th January, 31st January, 21st February, 28th February, 6th March' are listed. The time '1.00-3.30pm' and location 'Cross Keys House - Axminster' are also included. A call to action says 'Book a place via the ALCS website'. On the right, there is a 'Creative Hub' logo and a small circular logo with the text 'Axminster and Lyme Cancer Support'. A photograph of an open art journal with colorful drawings and a woman's face is shown at the bottom right.
